SUNDAY 12th November 2017 REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY

WELCOME to the Cathedral whether you are a regular, a visitor or simply trying us out. We are delighted to have you with us.

If you are here with CHILDREN or TEENAGERS, the primary school aged young people of our Young Church groups called BEANSTALK will be meeting next door in Castlehill House (connected by the corridor near the back on the left) after the Collect prayer. Your young people are welcome to join them (P1 – S6). Please speak to a welcomer for further information or simply join the group as they leave the church.

STUDENTS – It's great that you are here. Please introduce yourself to Lottie, our student worker.

TODAY IS REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY across the nation. We pause at 11am to remember all who 'for our tomorrows gave their todays.' The liturgical colour is red for martyrs who, in this case, died to preserve the Christ's kingdom values of freedom and peace.

THE SERVICE is contained entirely in the liturgy booklet you will have been handed along with this leaflet (other than the bible readings which you will find on pages 3 and 4 of this leaflet.)

In the second half of the service, we celebrate Holy Communion. You are welcome either to receive Holy Communion at this service or, if you would prefer, a blessing. If you do not hold your hands out to receive Communion, the priest will know to give a blessing instead. If you prefer simply to stay in your seat, that is fine too.

After the service we serve coffee, tea and cake at the back of church. If you have time, please join us.

There is an Offering to contribute to the ministry costs of the Cathedral in the middle of the service. If you are a UK taxpayer, you can GIFTAID your offering meaning that the Cathedral can reclaim from the government the tax you have already paid on the amount you give. To do this, please simply fill in a Gift Aid envelope which are to be found at the end of each pew or on the Gift Aid table at the back.

REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY

Job 19.21-27

A reading from the book of Job.

Have pity on me, have pity on me, O you my friends, for the hand of God has touched me! Why do you, like God, pursue me, never satisfied with my flesh?

“O that my words were written down! O that they were inscribed in a book! O that with an iron pen and with lead they were engraved on a rock forever!

For I know that my Redeemer lives, and that at the last he will stand upon the earth; and after my skin has been thus destroyed, then in my flesh I shall see God, whom I shall see on my side, and my eyes shall behold, and not another. My heart faints within me!

1 Corinthians 15.51-57

A reading from the first letter of Paul to the Corinthians.

Listen, I will tell you a mystery!

We will not all die, but we will all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet.

For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed. For this perishable body must put on imperishability, and this mortal body must put on immortality.

When this perishable body puts on imperishability, and this mortal body puts on immortality, then the saying that is written will be fulfilled: “Death has been swallowed up in victory.” “Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?”

John 6.37-40

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

Glory to Christ our Saviour.

Jesus said,

“Everything that the Father gives me will come to me, and anyone who comes to me I will never drive away; for I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him who sent me. And this is the will of him who sent me, that I should lose nothing of all that he has given me, but raise it up on the last day.

This is indeed the will of my Father, that all who see the Son and believe in him may have eternal life; and I will raise them up on the last day.”

Give thanks to the Lord for his glorious Gospel.

Praise to Christ our Lord
