SUNDAY 10th June 2018

THE THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

WELCOME to the Cathedral whether you are a regular, a visitor or simply trying us out. We are delighted to have you with us.

If you are here with CHILDREN or TEENAGERS, they are most welcome either to sit with you or to join our BEANSTALK, (Young Church) Groups which meet just after the Collect prayer next door in Castlehill House. Please let a welcomer know if you are interested. There is also a play area for very young children.

TODAY—is the Third Sunday after Pentecost within the period known as Ordinary Time or 'the Green Season' so named because of the liturgical colour which signifies the gift of creation, life and growth.

This morning's service is contained entirely in the liturgy booklet EXCEPT for the texts of the biblical readings which you will find at pages 3 and 4 of this leaflet.

In the second half of the service, we celebrate Holy Communion. You are welcome to come forward and either to receive Holy Communion at this service or, if you would prefer, a blessing. If you do not hold your hands out to receive Communion, the priest will know to give a blessing instead. If you prefer simply to stay in your seat, that is fine too.

After the service we serve coffee, tea and cake at the back of church. If you have time, please join us.

There is an Offering in the middle of the service contribute to the ministry costs of the Cathedral. we ♥ giftaid
If you are a UK taxpayer, you can GIFTAID your offering meaning that the Cathedral can reclaim from the government the tax you have already paid on the amount you give. To do this, please simply fill in a Gift Aid envelope which are to be found at the end of each pew or on the Gift Aid table at the back.

HABEMUS EPISCOPUM! THE VERY REV'D ANDREW SWIFT was elected as the 51st Bishop of Brechin on 2nd June. Congratulations to Andrew who comes to us from being Rector of Holy Trinity, Dunoon and St Paul's, Rothesay and Dean of the Diocese of Argyll & the Isles. Please pray for our new bishop-elect and his wife Mary and their family. Please also pray for the candidates who were not elected as well as their spouses, partners and families.

PASTORAL... NOTICES

MARIANNA LINES – We are very saddened by the death of Marianna, who has been such a colourful part of the St Paul's family for many years. She fought bravely through her cancer and died peacefully just after midnight on Wednesday morning. May she rest in peace and rise in glory. Marianna's funeral will take place at 11am in Strowan Woodland Cemetery near Comrie on Saturday 23rd June. All welcome. There will be a reception afterwards at Collesie Hall.

ONE HUNDRED + CANDLES ON THE WINDOWSILLS OF THE CATHEDRAL represent to date £11,153.75 (including gift aid recoverable) raised by the congregation for the new lighting scheme. Well done everyone. If you have not already given, it is not too late. Speak to Carole Spink or the Provost about ways to give.

TWO NEW BISHOPS elected... – For this diocese, as mentioned above, The Very Revd Andrew Swift, Rector of Holy Trinity, Dunoon and Dean of the Diocese of Argyll & the Isles was elected. For the Diocese of St Andrews, Dunkeld & Dunblane, The Revd Canon Ian Paton, Rector of Old St Paul's Church, Edinburgh was elected.

READINGS FOR PENTECOST 3 (YEAR B)

Genesis 3.8-15

A reading from the book of Genesis

The man and the woman heard the sound of the LORD God walking in the garden at the time of the evening breeze, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God among the trees of the garden. But the LORD God called to the man, and said to him, 'Where are you?' He said, 'I heard the sound of you in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself.' He said, 'Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree of which I commanded you not to eat?' The man said, 'The woman whom you gave to be with me, she gave me fruit from the tree, and I ate.' Then the LORD God said to the woman, 'What is this that you have done?' The woman said, 'The serpent tricked me, and I ate.' The LORD God said to the serpent,

'Because you have done this,
cursed are you among all animals
and among all wild creatures;
upon your belly you shall go,
and dust you shall eat
all the days of your life.

I will put enmity between you and the woman,
and between your offspring and hers;
he will strike your head,
and you will strike his heel.'

2 Corinthians 4.13-5.1

A reading from the first letter of Paul to the Corinthians.

Just as we have the same spirit of faith that is in accordance with scripture—'I believed, and so I spoke'—we also believe, and so we speak, because we know that the one who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus, and will bring us with you into his presence. Yes, everything is for your sake, so that grace, as it extends to more and more people, may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God.

So we do not lose heart. Even though our outer nature is wasting away, our inner nature is being renewed day by day. For this slight momentary affliction is preparing us for an eternal weight of glory beyond all measure, because we look not at what can be seen but at what cannot be seen; for what can be seen is temporary, but what cannot be seen is eternal.

For we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

Mark 3.20-35

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.
Glory to Christ our Saviour.

The crowd came together again, so that they could not even eat. When his family heard it, they went out to restrain him, for people were saying, 'He has gone out of his mind.' And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, 'He has Beelzebul, and by the ruler of the demons he casts out demons.' And he called them to him, and spoke to them in parables, 'How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but his end has come. But no one can enter a strong man's house and plunder his property without first tying up the strong man; then indeed the house can be plundered.

'Truly I tell you, people will be forgiven for their sins and whatever blasphemies they utter; but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit can never have forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin'— for they had said, 'He has an unclean spirit.'

Then his mother and his brothers came; and standing outside, they sent to him and called him. A crowd was sitting around him; and they said to him, 'Your mother and your brothers and sisters are outside, asking for you.' And he replied, 'Who are my mother and my brothers?' And looking at those who sat around him, he said, 'Here are my mother and my brothers! Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother.'

Give thanks to the Lord for his glorious Gospel.

Praise to Christ our Lord.
