SUNDAY 29th September 2019 SIXTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

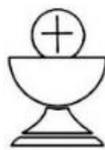

WELCOME to the Cathedral whether you are a regular, a visitor or simply trying us out. We are delighted to have you with us.

TODAY—is the SIXTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST within the period known as Ordinary Time or 'the Green Season' so named because of the liturgical colour which signifies the gift of creation, life and growth.

This morning's service is contained entirely in the liturgy booklet EXCEPT for the readings which you will find in this leaflet.

In the second half of the service, we celebrate Holy Communion. You are welcome to come forward and either to receive Holy Communion at this service or, if you would prefer, a blessing. If you do not hold your hands out to receive Communion, the priest will know to give a blessing instead. If you prefer simply to stay in your seat, that is fine too.

After the service we serve coffee, tea and cake at the back of church. If you have time, please join us.

There is an Offering to contribute to the ministry costs of the Cathedral in the middle of the service. If you are a UK taxpayer, you can GIFTAID your offering meaning that the Cathedral can reclaim from the government the tax you have already paid on the amount you give. To do this, please simply fill in a Gift Aid envelope which are to be found at the end of each pew or on the Gift Aid table at the back.

we ♥ giftaid

BEANSTALK, our Young Church Groups, meet after the Collect prayer and come back in time for communion. If you would like your child to join a group today, please simply speak to a welcomer who will be pleased to yelp.

NOTICES

ROXANNE CAMPELL (one of our own Cathedral family) will be ordained to the order of Deacons next Sunday (29th September) at 3.30pm here in the Cathedral by Bishop Andrew. Roxanne will thereafter serve the first year of her title at St Ninian's Church, Dundee. Please pray for Roxanne as she prepares for her ordination.

UNBLOCKTOBER – month to save our sewers and seas. Become one of thousands of people across the UK who are committed to saving our sewers and our seas by making small, simple changes to your kitchen and bathroom habits. See the resource book at the back of the Cathedral, the poster on the noticeboard and visit www.unblocktober.org to register.

HARVEST THANKSGIVING – Harvest this year will be celebrated on SUNDAY 6th October. After the service that day, there will be a Bring 'n' Share Lunch in St Roque's Hall. There is a sign up sheet available at the back of church.

LUNCHTIME CONCERTS – Thanks to those who helped with yesterday's concert. The next in the series will be on Saturday 5th October when CHRISTOPHER BAXTER (piano) will be performing. Details on the flyer at the back of the Cathedral.

REVD KIRRILEE REID, our former associate priest, who now works among refugees in the north of France desperately needs volunteers to go for short periods to France to help run the Maria Skobtsova House for refugee families. If you or anyone you know might be able to help (accommodation provided), then please speak to Jeremy.

BISHOP FORBES EVENSONG – Sunday 13th October at 6.30pm.
Mark the date!

CLEANING – if you take your turn in helping clean the Cathedral and Castlehill House (at present we only have a few volunteers), please email admin@saintpaulscathedral.net or speak to Jeremy or Carole.

THE READINGS FOR TODAY...

Amos 6.1a, 4-7

A reading from the book of Amos.

Thus says the LORD, the God of hosts:

Alas for those who are at ease in Zion,
and for those who feel secure on Mount Samaria!

Alas for those who lie on beds of ivory,
and lounge on their couches,
and eat lambs from the flock,
and calves from the stall;
who sing idle songs to the sound of the harp,
and like David improvise on instruments of music;
who drink wine from bowls,
and anoint themselves with the finest oils,
but are not grieved over the ruin of Joseph!
Therefore they shall now be the first to go into exile,
and the revelry of the loungers shall pass away.

1 Timothy 6.6-19

A reading from the first letter of Paul to Timothy.

There is great gain in godliness combined with contentment; for we brought nothing into the world, so that we can take nothing out of it; but if we have food and clothing, we will be content with these. But those who want to be rich fall into temptation and are trapped by many senseless and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction. For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil, and in their eagerness to be rich some have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many pains.

But as for you, man of God, shun all this; pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance, gentleness. Fight the good fight of the faith; take hold of the eternal life, to which you were called and for which you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses. In the presence of God, who gives life to all things, and of Christ Jesus, who in his testimony before Pontius Pilate made the good confession, I charge you to keep the commandment without spot or blame until the manifestation of our Lord Jesus Christ, which he will bring about at the right time—he who is the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of kings and Lord of lords. It is he alone who has immortality and dwells in unapproachable light, whom no one has ever seen or can see; to him be honour and eternal dominion. Amen.

As for those who in the present age are rich, command them not to be haughty, or to set their hopes on the uncertainty of riches, but rather on God who richly provides us with everything for our enjoyment. They are to do good, to be rich in good works, generous, and ready to share, thus storing up for themselves the treasure of a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of the life that really is life.

Luke 16.19-31

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

Glory to Christ our Saviour.

Jesus told this parable to those among the Pharisees who loved money:

‘There was a rich man who was dressed in purple and fine linen and who feasted sumptuously every day. And at his gate lay a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores, who longed to satisfy his hunger with what fell from the rich man’s table; even the dogs would come and lick his sores.

The poor man died and was carried away by the angels to be with Abraham. The rich man also died and was buried.

In Hades, where he was being tormented, he looked up and saw Abraham far away with Lazarus by his side. He called out, “Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue; for I am in agony in these flames.”

But Abraham said, “Child, remember that during your lifetime you received your good things, and Lazarus in like manner evil things; but now he is comforted here, and you are in agony. Besides all this, between you and us a great chasm has been fixed, so that those who might want to pass from here to you cannot do so, and no one can cross from there to us.”

He said, “Then, father, I beg you to send him to my father’s house— for I have five brothers—that he may warn them, so that they will not also come into this place of torment.”

Abraham replied, “They have Moses and the prophets; they should listen to them.”

He said, “No, father Abraham; but if someone goes to them from the dead, they will repent.”

He said to him, “If they do not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be convinced even if someone rises from the dead.” ’

Give thanks to the Lord for his glorious Gospel

Praise to Christ our Lord.
